Blast E-mail Guidelines and Submission Specifications:

1. Content must be created according to NANN Blast E-mail specifications and when applicable, approved by sponsor's legal team prior to submitting to NANN.
2. NANN has final approval of all sponsor content. NANN reserves the right to refuse sponsor content for any reason.
3. NANN will provide a "test" version of the e-mail for approval prior to sending.
4. NANN will make every effort to send sponsor e-mail on requested dates, but will schedule according to availability.
5. NANN limits sponsored blast e-mails to three per month.
6. Content is preferred in HTML code form, with subject line included. Copy should not exceed 400 words.
7. If HTML code is not possible, please submit according to the following specifications:
 - a. Banner image: 650 x 150 pixels, high resolution .jpeg, less than 10 MB, submitted as e-mail attachment.
 - b. Copy should be submitted via Word document, with formatting directions and hyperlinks included. Images should be indicated in text via [insert "image name" image here], submitted as e-mail attachment, and be no larger than 650 pixels wide.

We agree to the above advertising schedule/rates and understand that payment must be received prior to email send date. This contract is subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the NANN advertising policies.
